

Servant-Leader Training Academy Transform the way you live, love, and lead!

WHAT

You hear the phrase “Servant Leadership” and it feels like something you’ve always been doing but never had a language to describe. But what is it, really?

What could it mean for your life and your organization?

Find out at the Servant-Leader Training Academy, a one-day, interactive, skills-oriented approach to developing the competencies of exemplary leadership—Servant Leadership—and implementing them in your organization.

The Servant-Leader Training Academy blends research and reflection, stories and exercises to help you on both your personal and institutional journey in Servant Leadership.

FACULTY

Don Frick, PhD, author of the biography Robert K. Greenleaf: A Life of Servant Leadership. Don is a writer, university professor, speaker, consultant, media producer, and an internationally recognized expert in Servant Leadership. He is co-author of the upcoming book The Seven Pillars of Servant Leadership (Paulist Press).

HOST

Jeff Pauley, Founder & Principal, Magellan Executive Resources. As the Academy’s host, Jeff brings an incredible wealth of real-world case examples from his work serving people in businesses, non-profits, and government agencies (at the local, state, federal level) who are applying Servant Leadership in their lives and organizations.
